To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is offered in support of Veronica Barolo, a faith filled member of St. Margaret of Scotland Parish Youth Group.

I have known Veronica for four years as catechist and youth minister. She never hesitates to help in whatever manner she is able. In the past, she has been a catechist aide in the Sunday Preschool Faith Formation program. Recently, she has begun to help in the Junior High Faith Formation program.

As a member of the L.I.F.E. Youth Group, she often takes a leadership role. She does not hesitate to offer to be part of activities, but she also organizes and takes a lead role. One recent project involved a project to honor our pastor, Fr. Ronald DeHondt, on his 40th anniversary of ordination. She came up with a plan that would allow the entire group to thank Fr. Ron for his support of our group. Veronica not only came up with the plan but organized and lead the other teens through the project.

One of the character traits I most admire about Veronica is that she does not hesitate be the first to say or do what she believes is right. She does not need the approval of others before she takes action in what she knows to be the right thing to do.

I enjoy having Veronica as part of the Youth Group. She takes part in all activities and even helps to organized different events. I sometimes forget that she is a freshman since she has the confidence of someone who has been a member for four years.

What a blessing to have this young lady be part of our parish and programs. I am happy to recommend Veronica Barolo in support of her endeavors.
